

CHANDLER LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The Chandler Chamber's Leadership Institute prepares future community leaders to meet the challenges of community service. The purpose of Chandler Leadership Institute is provide selected business and community members an opportunity to learn about issues facing our community, develop skills required by community leaders, and motivate participants to become involved in leadership roles and service to Chandler.

As Chandler grows, so do the needs of its citizenry. Chandler Leadership Institute offers its members a broad range of experiences and insights about the city: its needs and its services.

The program educates approximately 25 participants annually. To date, the Chamber has a roster of graduates who are serving in leadership roles in organizations in our local community and the surrounding region.
